"WITH THE COLORS"

Sunday 8 P.M.
3/31/1918

Dearest: -

A letter a day is not bad is it? My record for the last few days has been very fair for writing you. Hasn't it. I have spent this day in the kitchen. This is the last day for O. W. No. 7. and so we gave a farewell banquet and just happened I volunteered to help out in the kitchen. It wasn't my regular time but work won't hurt me. We had one grand dinner. Pork, coffee, bread butter, gravy, peas, apple sauce, Apples, Celery, dressing, ice cream and cake. Now wasn't that nice?

Our company is disbanded to morrow, many going to some organizations and many to others. Thirty one go to the Field Squadron but I wasn't one of them.

tho' I wish I had been.
I am transferred to Office workers no 1 and suppose will spend some more
weeks in school.

How be u. and how does
the new time suit u?
I forgot to say that I would be located in block D, the same block as L. G. is.

L. G. and I went to a movie this eve and saw some pictures. One of the reels we had seen at Muncie.
Do you remember the night we all went to Muncie with Dennis Faddy? Do you remember the picture where Faddy Crumble went to the races and lost his money?
It was the same picture.
Now you see Florida is at least two months behind at any rate. I received a letter

"WITH THE COLORS"

from u today, a very short one but worry not for the short ones are dear as the longer.

How is everyone? and
Dear Old Jim how is she?
I miss her and her big Sister.
I will remember two years ago today, the last day of school I taught. I remember of making a jokingly remark to some of my eighth grade girls. It was this - I said, Girls, I will wait until 1920 which will be another leaf year, then I will be old enough to marry and some one may propose to me. It seems but as yesterday since I said those words, the 2 years have passed. Will I have half way fulfilled that remark and only have two years more to wait.

Ha! Probably some one would take pity on me. Before the time is up. Ha!

Three months ago in the morning I landed here in camp. The time seems but yesterday due to the fact I suppose that I am always busy and so the time flies.

Well dear I will close
and write again soon.

Yours,

S. W. A. R.
